

Slow Art Experience

We will discuss as a group one or two different works of art each session using specific routines designed to help us look in depth. The goal is to teach students to use these routines to look at art on their own.