

Card Making for Beginners

The course will consist of brief demonstrations of specific techniques used in card making with ample time for participants to practice techniques.

Techniques to be covered include the following:

Basic card construction

Die cutting

Dry embossing

Wet embossing

Ink blending

Use of stencils

Color theories and the color wheel

Coloring images using various media

Colored pencil

Watercolor

Markers

Use of non-paper materials

Alcohol ink

Textures

Design principles

Card layout and design