

Card Making Workshop

The course will be an opportunity for experienced card makers (including those currently enrolled in card making for beginners) to practice their skills in a supportive atmosphere and to use the card making tools available in the art classroom.

Specific techniques and the use of specific media may be reviewed or taught based on the interests of class members.