Advanced Photography

Course Content:

Course content will be limited to special techniques for capturing and editing photographs and topics representing specific photographic genre. The instructor will solicit and select from topics suggested by class participants. Examples could include: Astro photography, image stacking (HDR, Panorama's, focus stacking), special editing techniques, long exposure photography, macro, landscape, portrait, etc.