

This is a continuation of the Spring 2024 class with more movies in which cars and motorcycles are principal characters or a significant part of the story. These are not just movies with chase scenes, although they may include chase scenes as part of the story.