

Novels as Storytelling

Course Description

This course will follow the format of previous courses: a combination of lecture and discussion of 6 novels. This format provides background information and some literary theory while it also offers class members the opportunity to share their insights.

Weekly Layout: